

OSAC Scholarship Application: Personal Statements

[Sample Only] This is for informational and practice purposes only. Do not submit this form. You can copy and paste your statements from this practice sheet directly into the Personal Statements section of your OSAC Scholarship Application.

Let your Personal Statements tell your story. Scholarship donors are looking for reasons why they should choose you for their scholarship award. Let your voice come through.

- Use correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling
- Don't use any text formatting (bold, italics, underlines, etc.)
- Avoid repeating information already included in your application, such as your GPA
- Focus on something unique about yourself
- Pay attention to the exact question topics and the character limit

The Personal Statements section has a 1,000 character limit, including spaces. Any text over 1,000 characters will not show up on your application.

1. What are your specific educational plans and career goals and why? What inspires you to achieve them?

2. What have you done for your family or community that you care about the most and why?
